JACK BALTAR TOP BAY-WAVELAND SKIPPER

With but two weekends left to conclude Expert Fish Elimination Series at Bay-Waveland, the tension is rising as skippers are checking their averages and trying to figure just how they must fare in these final races in order to qualify for one of the top six out of the twenty-nine competing skippers.

Jack Baltar with three firsts, two seconds and a fourth, holds a commanding lead and needs only to do fairly well in his next two races to be top skipper for the year. Baltar sports a lusty .929 average.

Incidentally, if Baltar preserves this spot, he will be the first skipper since the club was reorganized in 1949 to be "Cock of the Walk" for a second time. The club record shows nine different champions over the past nine years. Baltar last won this honor in 1957.

As an added attraction this week a fleet of five Dragons as well as the Penguin fleet, will sail a separate series.

Democratic Executive Committee In Meeting Names Elect. Officials

The Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee declined Tuesday to certify a Bay St. Louis man as a candidate for circuit clerk in the Democratic primary next August 4.

ing the office of Circuit clerk. They are Sylvan J. Ladner Jr., Bay St. Louis, the current sheriff, and Lamar Otis, Logtown, former secretary to the Democratic committee who resigned to run for office.

The double ring ceremony was performed at a nuptial Mass in St. Joseph's Church, New Orleans, before an altar banked with white gladioli, white gladioli and palms. Pink ribbon bows marked the pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white chantilly lace gown, fashioned with two tiers of Chantilly lace over a bouffant skirt, draped at the hemline with small bluish pink bows, and featuring a wide pale pink panel down the back. The fitted bodice of lace was made with a scalloped neckline.

Her full length veil was attached to a pearl tiara with pink roses on the train. She carried a bouquet of fleur d'amour and white gladioli centered with a white orchid.

They wore cummerbunds with a large bow to the back in pastel colors, and carried white missals topped with arrangements of pastel colors gladioli and ribbon streamers.

Net headpieces in color match, their dresses were attached to a circle of small white roses.

C. Maine and Bruce Bordon, a cousin of the groom, all of New Orleans. Gene Robinson, uncle of the bride, served as usher.

A reception followed at St. Bernard's Hall. The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with a five-tiered pink wedding cake, topped with a bride and groom beneath a heart-shaped bough of pink roses, with orchids at each corner.

Mrs. Dimm chose for her daughter's wedding, a pastel blue figured dæmon-trimmed lace. White accessories and an orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom wore a frock of light blue figured silk, white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

TO THE VOTERS
OF BEAT 5,
HANCOCK COUNTY

FIRST—Let me say thanks a lot for letting me into your home when I came soliciting your vote for Justice of the Peace.

Remember voters I have had 20 years enforcement experience as your Justice of the Peace, and I am already experienced in decisions by working in and out of court the last 20 years.

I am strictly running on my own past experience, and a vote from you on 4th is a vote you will never regret. Thanking you all in advance.

A FRIEND TO ALL
RANDOLPH BOURGEOIS
BE SURE TO VOTE FOR TWO

Fred J. Bourgeois

Candidate For Supervisor, District 5

PRESENTS REASONS WHY HE IS SEEKING THIS OFFICE:

The Supervisor of each beat is responsible for the amount of taxes paid by the taxpayer. He is solely responsible for the assessed valuation of his District.

If each taxpayer will check their receipts for the amount of taxes they paid in 1958, compare them with their taxes of 1959, they will be astonished at the enormous increase in taxes they are now paying.

I have carefully checked the matter and I am convinced with the amount of assessed valuation of new homes and real estate development and with the tremendous amount of refunds beat 5 receives that there was never any reason for increase in taxes. With the national income I can reduce taxes and still have sufficient funds to HARD SURFACE EVERY ROAD IN BEAT 5 and to repair the Sea Wall Road.

By reducing and equalizing assessments it will encourage more people to build in Hancock County, at present there are many people who are trying to sell their homes and move away because of the heavy increase in taxes. We want to encourage people to make this their home and be permanent residents.

I will work hard to bring in NEW INDUSTRY by encouraging some with MINIMUM TAXATION.

I promise most faithful to solve the garbage problem along our roads which is unsanitary and unsanitary.

I will employ county laborers, who are in need of work and divide same among the people as much as possible.

It is also my intention to be a full time supervisor. I do not intend to operate any businesses, but to serve you faithfully and unselfishly for the benefit of you and this beat.

It has been brought to my attention, the hospital. The birth of the idea of a hospital in the year of 1950 with the help of Dr. Shipp, Dr. Bedford Floyd and others. This venture was not accomplished on a moment's notice but through work and efforts that have been going on for years. There is a lot of credit due the American Legion for their strenuous effort and expanded in the achievement of this hospital. And one more and most important addition the voter wanted it.

Everyone knows me as plain Fred Bourgeois, I am not arrogant nor self centered. It will be with pleasure and interest that I will listen to the people with their complaints, trouble, and constructive advice.

I could go into many controversies as to why a change of Beat 5 Supervisor should be made but in as much as I have been campaigning in a GENTLEMAN LIKE MANNER and have done any mud slinging I am certainly not going to start at this time.

I do faithfully promise the people of this District that if I am elected, I will at all times operate my office in the same manner as I have lived in the past and as I have served the people of the Town of Waveland as Marshal and Tax Collector for the past 2 1/2 yrs.

Again assuring you of my appreciation for your support and vote on August 4th.

I remain
Respectfully
Fred J. Bourgeois
Candidate for Supervisor of District 5

The Tunnel of Love

Star Theatre

Mon., 26-27

Miss Day is convinced that the secret to her acting career has been her long musical training.

Meaning means much more than just carrying a tune," she says. "It means telling a story, and telling it so that the listener hears it. And it takes quite a bit of dramatic doing to convey the mood or project a mood in the space of six or four bars.

Meaning is a great training discipline which comes from a good steady in studying scripts and delivering lines."

The way Doris sees it, she is unswerving in her determination to succeed while mixing hot licks and hard songs with hands such as Les Brown's and Les Brown's.

Her contention that warbling is a natural prelude to acting is supported by the many prominent players who started out singing for their supper and then developed into cinema caviar. Prime examples are Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Julie London, Mel Tormé and Dick Powell.

That Miss Day herself rates a top spot on the list leaves no room for argument. After scoring in musicals, she made the big switch to emoting and won plaudits for "Julie" and "Love Me Or Leave Me."

More recently, with "Teacher's Pet" and her current MGM release, "The Tunnel of Love," film version of the Joseph P. Kennedy-Peter De Vries Broadway hit, this Jill-of-all-trades is spearheading a revival of romantic comedy.

Producers grow starchy-eyed at the thought of so versatile a performer and flood Doris with roles of every description. Making a choice poses no problem for her; she just selects the ones that appeal to her personally.

"The big thing that attracted me to 'The Tunnel of Love' was its high ratio," she says. "It has at least one laugh to a scene."

This is not to say that the actress has sworn off heavy drama. After a triple play from music to melodrama to mirth, she is still willing to pick a favorite. However, number one on her "wish parade" is to do a "Rebecca"-type story.

Miss Day is adamant on one point: "There's always that tendency to want a singer to sing," she declares, "whether or not the situation calls for it."

She again sings songs into the microphone for working in songs when they fit smoothly into the story line.

Brigitte Bardot At

A. &amp; G. Theatre

Sun.-Mon., July 26-27

The last thing one expects to see in a Brigitte Bardot film—and this reviewer is no exception—is a story that is simple, direct, enjoyable and that makes sense. Most of the hallow banalities we have been exposed to thus far where this curvaceous Mademoiselle is concerned, have merely served to keep her on the screen for the 70 or 80 odd minutes that go to make up a feature-length film. However true and inconclusive it may be.

Still, to give the devil his due—even if he did invent Brigitte Bardot—we must in all honesty report that we were very pleasantly surprised—and entertained—by her latest provocatively titled charade "The Girl In The Bikini."

And hikin' it plenty there are. Black ones, white ones—all worn with revealing unselfconscious grace by the Mademoiselle from Paris. Miss Bardot is more generously on display here than she has ever been, and it may be that as, bestos screens will have to be installed in the interests of public safety—but this in itself is in the nature of a minor miracle—there is a point to it.

Miss Bardot plays a lighthouse keeper's daughter on a rugged Corsican island off whose depths lies a sunken treasure. An old beau—well played by a handsome young Frenchman named Jean-Francois Calve—appears on the scene accompanied by a Tangier smuggler—equally well played by Howard Vernon—to wrest the prize from the sea. Our young hero accomplishes his task, albeit by some really outstanding underwater photography—but winds up the victim of a cruel twist of fate engineered by the villain of the piece, Mr. Vernon. Since, however, he also winds up with Miss Bardot—who would dare imply he comes off second best? Certainly not this reviewer.

Special mention should go to the uniformly excellent photography, and there is a drowning sequence which for sheer ingenuousness and excitement is all one worth the price of admission. All this and Bardot too.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Luke Elliott are spending a week's vacation in Florida.

Mrs. E. J. Marengo, who underwent surgery at Gulfport Memorial Hospital last week, was discharged from the hospital Thursday and is recuperating at her De Montez Avenue home.

In the interest of collectors of Official First Day Issues, Commemorative Stamps, and Historical Postmarks, the Mississippi Petroleum Association will coordinate and expedite the mailing of Official Oil Centennial Envelopes from Titusville, Pennsylvania, the birthplace of the 100 year old industry. The Commemorative Stamp will be purchased, affixed, and canceled at Titusville on August 27.

H. J. Nicholas, President of the Mississippi Petroleum Association, said that collectors wishing to acquire the item should write the Association's office at 315 Lamar Life Building, Jackson, requesting that they be placed on the list to receive the mailing from Titusville, Pennsylvania, one day only—on August 27, the date the oil industry reaches its 100th birthday.

The 4c Commemorative Stamp will not be placed on sale at Post Offices, other than Titusville, Penn., until after August 27. This means, Nicholas said, that the item's value lies in the combination of Official First Day Issue Envelopes (authorized by the American Petroleum Institute), Frye.

Be sure and blanch the vegetables you put in your freezer. They will have a better flavor, texture, and color.

If you don't blanch your vegetables will develop a hay-like flavor, off color and a very disagreeable odor within 2 months.

Ask at your home agent's office for a copy of FREEZING FOODS. It tells how to select and prepare fruits, vegetables, meats and cooked foods for freezing.

TASTY CORN

The shorter the time from field to table, the tastier your corn-on-the-cob will be.

The natural sugars begin to change to less flavorful starches soon after picking.

The corn flavors keep best at low temperature. The grower does his part by picking the corn in the early morning. The grocer displays the corn in a refrigerated counter. Now, you must do your part by hurrying it home to the refrigerator, and not delaying use too long.

FAMILY ACTIVITY SCHEDULE

While the children are at home this summer is a good time to try out a family activities schedule.

Start by calling a meeting of the family council. Let the children help make a tentative plan to try out then change it or make adjustments until it fits the family.

First, list the jobs to tasks to be done. Next, list the fun activities the children and parents want to take part in.

Then, set up the following:

1. Time for everyday jobs
2. Sequence of jobs or tasks
3. Time allowed for each task—don't forget recreation, unexpected or "pop-up" activities
4. Member of family responsible for each task

Which is more valuable, to market calves through regular weekly auctions, or to joint with other cattlemen and pool the calves for special feeder and stocker sales?

Many cattlemen have been well pleased with prices received for calves during the past two or three years without any effort to create better markets through selecting or grouping quality calves for the critical buyer.

Feeder calf buyers are in the market for the right kinds of calves. For a special feeder calf sale to be successful, you must have quality, uniformity and large

BUDWORMS IN LATE CORN

Corn budworms can be a problem this year. Right about now, you should be finding evidence of insect damage in your corn fields, as the moth flight occurred during the past 10 days.

If you find a general infestation, poison, look for early "ragging" of the bud leaves.

Here is what to use: For spray—use either DDT emulsion or toxaphene emulsion. Use 8 to 10 gallons of water per acre and if using DDT, mix one-half gallon of 2-pound emulsion with the water. If using toxaphene, mix 1 1/3 quart of the 6-pound emulsion with the water. Be sure that nozzles are arranged directly over the corn to spray down into the whorl.

You can also use granules of these insecticides at the same dosage as for spray. Dusts can be used at 10-15 pounds per acre. Do not expect very good control from dusts.

FARM AND HOME SAFETY WEEK

National Farm and Home Safety Week begins Sunday. It is a good time to take stock of where you stand safety-wise.

Safety is a year-round job in Hancock County, not merely a week in a year one. But this week does give us a chance to take out to see how we rate as "accidents are looking for places to happen."

Too much emphasis cannot be placed on the Justice of the Peace operating as an HONORABLE, DIGNIFIED COURT OF JUSTICE and that is the people of the above type of conduct.

The Justice of the Peace office is considered by the general public as a vacant office; however, an insincere Justice of the Peace could be most detrimental to our community.

The office is on a fee basis only—no other means of support for his office could very badly abuse his office.

When elected, it is my deep concern this office on a very high level, by a court of FAIR, HONEST, JUSTIFICATIONS, with PARTIALITY TO NONE CONSIDERATION TO ALL.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

By GLORIA CLAY

It can be the difference in your driving your car safely or not. Or in Dad operating the tractor safely. Or Junior riding his bicycle safely.

A person who is tired, nervous, upset or lacking in his food supply, even though he doesn't realize it, isn't likely to be a safe efficient driver. Lack of breakfast may lead to a headache, weakness and make a person react less quickly as he drives.

Be sure that every member of the family eats a good breakfast as you start on an all day trip or your summer vacation trip. As a rule it is well to eat a generous breakfast, a lighter noon meal and a more substantial evening meal on such a trip. You're likely to overeat at noon if you don't eat breakfast. This will make you sleepy and less alert as you drive. Just remember, whether you

WASH AND WEAR

From a washability standpoint, wash and wear describes a garment that you can wash either by hand or machine, drip dry and wear again, with little or no touch-up ironing.

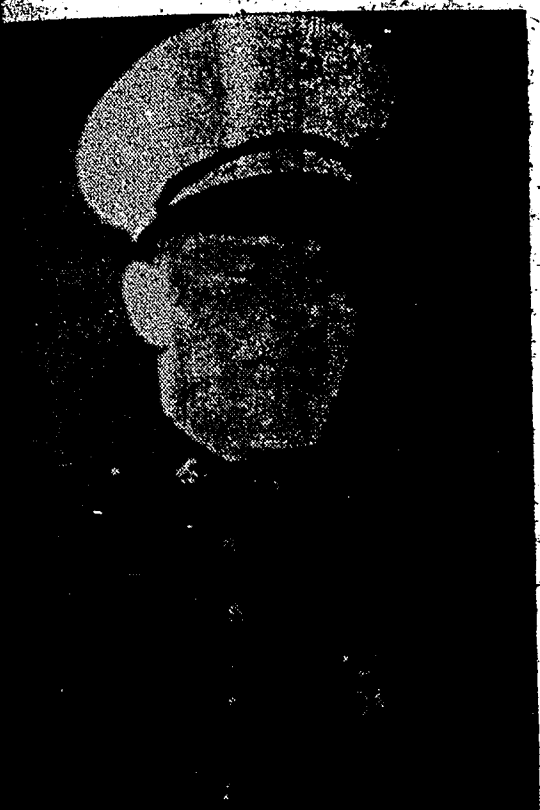

Sometimes you find a label that says, "automatic wash and wear." This means, if it is truly "automatic," you can machine wash it and tumble dry it at 140 to 160 degrees.

It will come out unwrinkled, ready to wear in only an hour or so, needing little if any touch-up ironing.

Before you give any of your clothes this treatment, be sure they are definitely "automatic" wash and wear. The ones that are generally have a large percentage of man-made fabrics as nylon, orlon or dacron. The garment must have buttons, thread, zippers and other finishes that can stand up to the treatments as well as the fabric.

COUNTY BOY, MEMBER U. S. MARINE CORPS REPORTED MISSING

and Mrs. Fred Curet of Kiln were recipients of sad news this last Saturday afternoon carrying the report that their son Corporal Fred Curet, Jr., of the United States Marine Corps, was reported missing in action.

Corporal Fred Curet, Jr., attended Saint Stanislaus College one year and returned to Kiln High School to continue his studies. On September 19, 1942, he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. At the time he was a senior in high school. He remained in San Francisco, California, until March 30th, 1940, when he was transferred to the Philippines. After his arrival in the Philippines, he made a Corporal of the 3rd Battalion, Marines.

At the outbreak of the war he was placed on the eligible list for promotion to the rank of sergeant. The last news that his parents received from him, was a letter written on February 5, 1942 and received on April 2nd.

Corporal Fred Curet, Jr., was born at Kiln on June 19th, 1921. He was on duty at Corregidor.

His sincere hope that this gallant soldier did not lose his life, and our prayer is that he will return to his home and lend happiness to them, he being a good child. We are sure that all of the people of Hancock County who know Mr. Fred Curet and Fred, Jr., join us in our grief.

I have always been known to stand on my own two feet and enforce the law with malice to none. This is my platform, my record speaks for itself as a law enforcement officer and a good Christian Gentleman.

YOUR VOTE AND EFFORT IN MY BEHALF WILL CERTAINLY NOT BE FORGOTTEN.

3. Work towards a system of paying most of your TAXES in ONE PLACE. (Some people now have to go to Three.)
4. Establish a scientific PROGRAM OF CRIME PREVENTION and hire courteous full time deputies from all parts of the County.
5. Furnish you with a FRIENDLY, EFFICIENT, ADEQUATE STAFF OFFICE FORCE that will make your visit a pleasant one.
6. I will WORK hand in hand WITH OTHER OFFICERS, you people see fit to elect.
7. I plan to have a special Deputy to WORK WITH all YOUTH PROGRAMS as it is: a proven fact that crime rate is much lower in areas which have a planned program for our youth.
8. I will work closely with the Chamber of Commerce, Civic, Religious and other Culture groups, to make Hancock County a better place to live.
9. I promise you my friends that I will WEAR your BADGE with DIGNITY and RESPECT to all the people as I have in the past.

FARM TELEPHONES INCREASE

About one of three farmer in Mississippi had telephone service in 1958. About 63,000 of the State's farms had telephone service as of July 1958. This was an increase of 19 per cent above the estimate in 1957, 80 per cent above 1955 and 270 per cent above 1950. In 1957 about 25 per cent, or 53,000 farms, had telephone service; in 1955 about 16 per cent, or 35,000 farms, had telephones, while only six per cent or 117,000 farms had this service in 1950. For the nation, three out of five farms had telephone service in 1958. About 2.9 million on the country's 4.7 million farms had telephone service as of July 1958. This was a 5 per cent increase above the estimate for 1957; 13 per cent above 1955; and 32 per cent above 1950. Largest increase in number of farm telephones occurred in the South.

Did You Know?

R. G. "Manny" Hubbard,

Eight years ago I promised you that I would "conduct my office as Supervisor as I do my business, being conscientious, honest and untiring in my efforts to serve the public." THIS I HAVE DONE! One of the accomplishments during my 7 years as your Supervisor is the amount we have paid on the Seawall Bond Issue, which has been the topic of discussion for many years.

Many of you have no idea of the original amount of the issue, how much has been paid on it, or how much is still due. Not at any time since I have been on the Board of Supervisors have we missed a payment.

The original bond issue for the construction of the Seawall was issued November 1, 1925 in the amount of $1,250,000.00 (One million two hundred thousand dollars.)

By the year 1932 (twenty six years) the Board of Supervisor paid on this bond issue $223,000.00. (Two hundred twenty three thousand dollars.)

By the year 1940 (fifteen years) since I have been a member of the Board, the amount paid on the bond issue was $592,000.00 (Five hundred ninety two thousand dollars.)

By the year 1947 (seven years) the amount paid on the bond issue was $592,000.00 (Five hundred ninety two thousand dollars.)

By the year 1954 (seven years) the amount paid on the bond issue was $592,000.00 (Five hundred ninety two thousand dollars.)

Select Wisely!
